

Seat No. : _____

MI-104

March-2021

Integrated Law LL.B., Sem.-IV

ILBA 208 : Political Science – III

Time : 2 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 60

Instructions : (1) Attempt any THREE questions.
(2) All questions carry equal marks

1. Parliament in India has multi-functional role and enjoys variety of functions. Analyse the law making powers, financial powers, amendment powers, and control over the executive, judicial functions, electoral functions of the Parliament.
2. Has the Constitution of India been able to achieve the life of dignity to the millions through the process of socio-economic transformation ? In this context, analyse the success and failures of the Constitution and recommendation of the Venkatachaliah commission for improvement of the Constitution.
3. There are extensive provisions in the Constitution of India to govern relations between the centre and the states. Contextualising this, discuss the legislative and administrative relations between the centre and states.
4. Explain in detail the evolution of Panchayatiraj in India. Discuss the recommendations of various committees on Panchayatiraj institutions in India.
5. What is judicial review ? How is it different from judicial activism ? Discuss the important cases reviewed by judiciary and constitutional provisions of judicial review.
6. Discuss the modern trends and role of activators of judicial activism in India. Elucidate the apprehensions of judicial activism.

MI-104