

Seat No. : _____

AM-121

April-2015

T.Y. M.B.A., Integrated

World Geography

Time : 2 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 50

1. Design a comparative study of the physical features of the developed nations of the continents of North America and Australia. 10

OR

Describe the aspects of language, education, religion etc. in context of the developing nations of Asia and show the development pattern on basis of their natural resources and vegetation.

2. Classify in detail the International Organizations in context of International Trade. 10

OR

Define 'Conurbation' and explain the reasons of its origination in various parts of world. Discuss its formation and viability in context of India.

3. Define the Resources as means of economic development in the world. 10

OR

Describe the types of agricultural systems in the world with their distribution pattern on globe.

4. Answer in brief : 10

- (a) Classify the major topographical features of continent Africa
(b) Describe the European culture on basis of their political features
(c) Explain Australia as a developed nation overcoming its dry and barren geographical features.
(d) Picturize the physical features of Oceania.

5. Answer in brief : (Any five)

10

- (a) Name the major waterfalls with their locations on globe
  - (b) Which are the major islands of Europe ?
  - (c) Which are the characteristics of Population ?
  - (d) Write three major states or cities of North America
  - (e) Name three major islands of south East Asia
  - (f) State the various types of economic activities
-