

Seat No. : _____

KI-115

March-2014

LL.B. (Sem.-VI) & Third LL.B. (Winter Sem.)

312 : Legal Language / Legal Writing including General English (Old & New)

Time : 3 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 100

1. Write an essay on any one of the following : 20
- (1) Legal Aid
 - (2) Judicial Activism
 - (3) Human Rights
 - (4) Professional Ethics

2. Explain and frame sentence to illustrate and correct use of any five of the following : 20
- (1) Ab initio
 - (2) Accomplice
 - (3) Alibi
 - (4) Caveat Emptor
 - (5) De facto
 - (6) Ex parte
 - (7) Garnishee
 - (8) Inter alia
 - (9) Mens rea
 - (10) Matawalli

3. Read the following passage carefully and answer the following questions : 20

The Olympic Motto, "Citius, Altius, Fartius", meaning, "Faster, Higher, Stronger", is a tribute to human Endeavour. It expresses faith in the ability of humans to constantly better themselves. Sport often brings out the best in us : team-spirit, determination, self confidence and most important, sportsmanship.

Competition pushes a human being to the summit of his capacity. But, it is Worthwhile to remember that pride, glory and victory go side by side with shame, disappointment and failure. Physical powers is not everything. The true sportsman is humble in victory and graceful in defeat.

Questions :

- (1) What does the Olympic Motto express ?
- (2) Why is sport valuable ?
- (3) What are the qualities of true sportsman ?
- (4) Suggest a suitable title.

4. Translate the following passage into Gujarati or Hindi : 20

An ideal lawyer is always courteous in his dealing with the court. He should not insult the court. If the court commits any mistake either of law or fact, he should not get excited. He can draw the attention of the court respectfully. If necessary, he can express his naive of dissent but without insulting the Court. He should remain present in a case throughout all the stages of litigation. If he is required to leave the court-room during the trial, he should not leave it without the permission of the court. A lawyer's presence is necessary at the time of the pronouncement of the judgement. If the judgement is against him, he should remain calm. It is unprofessional to create noise at the time. An ideal lawyer anoids making allegations against the judge.

5. Reduce the above paragraph given in question No. 4 into one third. 20

OR

Critically examine any two problems.

- (1) A introduced water into an ice-house belonging to B and thus causes the ice to melt, intending wrongful loss to B. Which offence A has committed.
- (2) The defendant opened a rival school next door to the plaintiff's on account of this new school number of students in Plaintiff's school was reduced and he had to reduce tuition fees which brought him into monetary loss. The Plaintiff filed a suit for damages. Can the Plaintiff succeed ?
- (3) An agreement between A & B provides that in case of India's victory over Pakistan in a football match. He will pay ₹ 50,000 to B and in case it is otherwise, B will ₹ 50,000 to A. Is this valid agreement ?
- (4) A has a son B, B has a son C, C has a son D and D has a son E. HUF consists of all these members with Hindu coparcenary include all these members.
