

Seat No. : _____

JB2-119

January-2016

LL.M., Sem.-I

Law – 402

(Indian Constitutional Law : The New Challenges)

Time : 3 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 100

Instruction : Answer all question.

1. “To give wider dimensions to Fundamental Rights, the judiciary has interpreted ‘State’ in different context at different time.” Critically discuss the statement. 20

OR

“Right to compensation be made an enforceable right.” Critically discuss the statement with the decided cases and the role of Supreme Court in developing compensatory jurisprudence in India.

2. “Critically discuss the role of judiciary in creating a new regime of fundamental rights by interpreting Directive Principles of State Policy through the optic of Part III of the Constitution. 20

OR

Critically discuss the impact of privatization on affirmative action in the actualization of Right to Equality.

3. Critically discuss the issues and challenges of ‘freedom of speech and expression’ with special reference to in an era of social networking. 20

OR

Critically discuss the provisions relating to Inter-State dispute on resources with special reference to water in the Constitution and the challenges thereof.

4. Discuss the Constitutional provision relating to federalism specifically declaration of President Rule on States. 20

OR

Critically discuss the Constitutional framework for ‘independence of judiciary’ in India.

5. Write short notes on : (any two) 20

- (a) Right to Strike
- (b) Right to Education
- (c) Public Interest Litigation
- (d) Doctrine of Separation of Power

JB2-119
