AY-104

May-2016

LL.M., Sem.-II

409 : Legal Research Methodology

Time : 3 Hours]   [Max. Marks : 100

Instruction : Answer all questions.

1. Discuss in detail the objective of legal research in India and the various research methods adopted by the legal researchers.   20

   OR

   "Legal research is to establish the relationship between the world of law and the world that law purports to govern." Discuss the statement with special reference to socio-legal research.

2. Discuss in detail the factors helpful in the identification of a research problem.   20

   OR

   "Literature review is one of the integral part of the research which defines the research problem emphatically." Discuss the statement critically.

3. Discuss in detail the various techniques of collecting primary data for legal research.   20

   OR

   Write note on :
   (a) Use of scaling techniques
   (b) Jurimetrics

4. Write in detail the rules for classification and tabulation of data.   20

   OR

   "Analysis of data is an important component of a empirical legal research." Discuss the statement in detail.

5. Critically discuss the role of legal research programme/software in carrying out legal research in India.   20

   OR

   Write note on :
   (a) Induction and deduction
   (b) Use of case studies in legal research

_____