2. Read the following passage carefully and answers the questions that follow : 8
- To the women of this country I would say exactly what I say to the men. Believe in India and in our Indian faith. Be strong and hopeful and unashamed, and remember that with something to take, Hindus have immeasurably more to give than any other people in the world. What was wanted was not a man, but a woman-a real lioness-to work for the Indians, women specially. We want both men and women. There is no distinction of sex in the soul. We want thousand of men, and thousands of women, who will spread like wild fire all over the world. Run like fire to all places. What the world wants is character. The world is in need of those whose life is one burning love, selfless. That love will make every word tell like thunderbolt. Bold words and bolder deeds are we want. Awake, awake, great ones ! The world is burning with misery. Can you sleep ?
