

MITF Sem.-1 Examination

MITF-101T

International Trade and Finance

February-2025

Time : 2-30 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 70

Instructions:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Figures to the right indicate Full Marks. • Do not write anything on the question paper. • A simple calculator is allowed. • Do not use a scientific calculator.
Q.1	You are the export manager of an Indian manufacturing company exporting goods to Europe. During shipment, the customs department has requested documentation for verification. Explain which documents you would provide and their specific purposes in the transaction.	14
Q.2	A multinational corporation operating in India is evaluating the impact of India's current import policy on sourcing raw materials. As a trade analyst, explain how the policy might influence their decision-making.	14
	OR	14
	A small Indian exporter is struggling to compete in the global market due to high tariffs. The exporter considers joining a Preferential Trade Area. Discuss the advantages of this decision and how it might impact their business.
Q.3	A) Explain the purpose and key elements of a Bill of Lading in international shipping.	7
	B) Compare the functions of the IMF and the New Development Bank (NDB). Highlight key differences in their focus and operations.	7
	OR
	A) Write a short note on the implementation of India's trade policies and their impact on exports and imports.	7
	B) Explain the role of UNCTAD in promoting trade and development in developing countries.	7

(P.T.O)

Q.4	A developing country faces a financial crisis and considers approaching the IMF for assistance. As an economic advisor, explain the objectives and functions of the IMF that can help the country's economy. OR Explain the significance of the World Bank's subsidiaries. How do they contribute to global development?	14 14
Q.5	A trade economist is analysing the impact of WTO agreements on developing nations like India. Discuss the significance of these agreements and their potential advantages and challenges for Indian trade.	14