

N625-2

- (2) The Gessler brothers were known for their exceptional _____ in shoemaking.
(a) advertising (c) pricing
(b) quality (d) speed
- (3) When the narrator complained about a pair of boots, Mr. Gessler offered to _____.
(a) make another pair for free (c) refund the money
(b) improve the polish (d) give discount on the next pair
- (4) The story The Ant and the Grasshopper is a modern adaptation of a _____.
(a) legend (c) fable
(b) fairy tale (d) parable
- (5) Tom Ramsay married a wealthy widow named _____.
(a) Elizabeth (c) none is mentioned
(b) Emma (d) Susan
- (6) George Ramsay had planned to retire at the age of _____.
(a) fifty-five (c) sixty
(b) fifty (d) sixty-five
- (7) The short story The Doll's House is written by _____.
(a) John Galsworthy (c) W. Somerset Maugham
(b) Katherine Mansfield (d) R. K. Narayan
- (8) The doll's house had _____ little chimneys.
(a) three (c) one
(b) five (d) two
- (9) _____ was the eldest of the Burnell children.
(a) Lottie (c) Kezia
(b) Lil (d) Isabel
- (10) Govind Singh served as a gatekeeper for _____ years.
(a) twenty-five (c) twenty
(b) fifteen (d) thirty
- (11) In Govind Singh's eyes the _____ had acquired a sort of Godhood.
(a) typist (c) accountant
(b) chief (d) secretary
- (12) Govind Singh kept the models in the shop of his _____.
(a) neighbour (c) cousin
(b) uncle (d) friend
-