

Seat No. : _____

TP-114
LL.M. Sem.-I
May-2013

402 – Indian Constitutional Law; The New Challenges

Time : 3 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 100

Instruction : Answer all questions.

1. “To give a wider dimension to Fundamental Rights, the judiciary has interpreted the ‘State’ in different contexts at different times.” Critically discuss the statement. 20

OR

Discuss the need for expanding the definition of the ‘State’ under Article 12 in the era of Liberalization, Privatization and Globalization.

2. “Protective Discrimination” is an affirmative action in the actualization of right to equality.” Discuss the statement. 20

OR

Critically discuss the “Freedom of Press” and challenges of new scientific development.

3. “Supreme Court of late has applying the doctrine of harmonious construction, so as to give effect to both Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy.” Discuss the statement critically. 20

OR

Critically discuss the evolution and evaluation of compensatory jurisprudence in India.

4. Critically discuss the limits and checks on President's rule under the Indian Constitution. 20

OR

Critically discuss the constitutional mechanism for the settlement on Inter-State Disputes with special reference to water.

5. "The device of 'Public Interest Litigation' has come to be recognized as a characteristics feature of higher judiciary in India." Discuss the statement. 20

OR

Write an essay on 'Judicial Independence'.
