

AK-125

April-2018

LL.M., Sem.-II

409 : Law

(Legal Research Methodology)

Time : 3 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 100

Note : Answer all questions.

1. “Our laws are not perfect and final and cannot be so in a dynamic society, they are not always even intelligible and if intelligible not always intelligently made.” Discuss the statement with special reference to importance of legal research. 20

OR

“Most of the legal research in India falls somewhere between the doctrinal and non-doctrinal research.” Critically discuss the statement with reference to the importance of doctrinal method in legal research.

2. Discuss briefly the various research models of legal research. 20

OR

Discuss in detail the scope of socio-legal research in India.

3. “Identification and formulation of problem constitute the starting phase of research enterprise.” Critically discuss the statement with special reference to the different factors involving identification of research problem. 20

OR

Briefly discuss the importance of sampling method in legal research.

4. “Drafting a questionnaire is an art to extract the data from the potential possessor of information.” Discuss the statement and explain the importance of questionnaire in a non-doctrinal legal research. 20

OR

Discuss briefly the importance of legal research on judicial behaviour.

5. Write note on (any two) : 20
- (a) Analysis of data
  - (b) Computerized Research
  - (c) Interview Method
  - (d) Induction and Deduction