

Seat No. : _____

ZQ-116

May-2014

LL.M., Sem.-II

Law-408 : Law & Social transformation in India

Time : 3 Hours]

[Max. Marks : 100

1. In the Indian context explain the concept of 'Law as an instrument of social change' with illustrations. 20

OR

Write a critical note on : religion – through secularism.

2. Critically examine the constitutional and other legal provisions pertaining to the empowerment of women. 20

OR

Discuss the nature of right to property under the constitution with reference to socialist thought.

3. Examine, with case law, the special provisions for the protection of children under the constitution. 20

OR

Write a critical note on reform of court process with special reference to 'Plea Bargaining'.

4. Explain in detail the alternative dispute resolution system as an effective tool for Judicial Reforms. 20

OR

Discuss Modernisation means performance of Fundamental duties.

5. Discuss any One : 20
(a) Agrarian Reform
(b) Naxalite movement

_____

ZQ-116