A, a child has been gang raped in Chennai for 6 months in an abandoned warehouse. A is physically challenged and can not speak and hear. She had been threatened to not to disclose anything to her family by the perpetrators. A gathered courage to convey about the ongoing physical abuse to her sister B who is also a minor. B had conveyed the message to her parents X & Y. When X & Y wanted to make a complaint they were discouraged by the thought that they will also be harassed and victimized.

Find out who is the real victim on the basis of critical discussion about critical victimology.
